Eligibility criteriaWho is eligible for supportive housing services?

FCS seeks to demonstrate the impact supportive housing services have on populations with the greatest and most immediate needs, including:

- Individuals experiencing chronic homelessness as defined by the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development.
- Those dependent on costly institutional care.
- Those dependent on more restrictive adult residential care/treatment settings.
- In-home care recipients with complex needs.
- Those at highest risk for expensive care and negative outcomes.

Who is eligible for supported employment services?

These services have proven especially effective for certain populations with complex needs. These include:

- Individuals enrolled in the Aged, Blind or Disabled program (<https://www.dshs.wa.gov/esa/community-services-offices/aged-blind-or-disabled-cash-assistance-program>) or the Housing and Essential Needs Referral program (<https://www.dshs.wa.gov/esa/community-services-offices/housing-and-essential-needs>).

- Individuals diagnosed with a severe and persistent mental illness, substance use disorder (SUD), or co-occurring mental illness and SUD.
- People who are receiving long-term services and supports.
- Vulnerable youth age 16 and older with a behavioral health condition.

The potential enrollee will be notified of the decision of this referral.
